My Dear Tuer

Here is the last of the gutter snipe drawings and sorry I am to leave them. Children of the gutter roam about free and are often hungry. but what would one give for such appetites? You and I smoke big Cigars. while they - all too soon poor little chaps - smoke what you and I and others throw away Sometimes I wonder whether they don't lead the happier life?

Yours always

The diagram shows a rectangular area containing approximately 1000 small, dark, irregular shapes representing points. These points are distributed across the rectangle, with a noticeably higher concentration in the upper right portion and a sparser distribution in the lower left.
